

WHO I AM

My name is Charles Emmanuel
#1 bestselling author of “The Diamond In Your Closet: How To Make Money With Your Gifts, Passion And Knowledge
In 60 Days”

I am an Online Business
Consultant for individuals and organizations.

I shot a special video for you and you can watch it here:
<http://uchecharlesemmanuel.com/internet-marketer/>

I help businesses develop an online presence that brings them a steady stream of clients and multiplies their revenue.

These are achieved by proffering innovative solutions for traffic generation, lead/prospect generation, customer acquisition and profit maximization.

Also, I help with website conversion solutions, social media strategy development and building effective sales funnels.

MY WORK AND ACHIEVEMENTS

I am the Founder/CEO of Income & Impact Academy – an online marketing/online business consulting firm for individuals and organizations.

I help my clients develop a content marketing strategy to maximize their online presence and attract a steady stream of clients and prospects.

This organization hosted two online events between December 2016 and March 2017 with over 5000 people in attendance from around the world.

My works have been featured on Fox News, ABC, CBS, NBC, Digital Journal, Addicted2Success and other international media outlets.

I am also an international Speaker who has had the privilege to speak at conferences and seminars all over Ukraine, other parts of Europe and Africa.

Whether I am working with individuals or organizations, I am often sort after to speak, coach and consult on Income Explosion Strategies. I even have a flagship training program called – Income Explosion Mastery.

MY SKILL SET

Among other skills, I am very good with content creation (text, audio and video). I have over 3 year experience in editing videos and audio.

I have more than 4 years experience of working with WordPress and I can easily update and manage Wordpress sites/blogs.

Social media marketing and getting content to go viral on the internet are some of my areas of strength as well.

I do a bit of graphic designing for social media posts, eBook covers and so on. And last but not the least; I also edit videos and audios.

As a natural writer, email marketing is also one of my areas of strength. I can come up with email concepts for both new subscribers and old (inactive) subscribers.

I should also add that I am a very fast learner and would be willing to acquire any skill that would help my efficiency when working with you.

WHY YOU SHOULD HIRE ME

For the past 5 years, I have been an avid student of the internet marketing world. I have studied, learnt and applied virtually everything in the books.

I have also had the privilege of being coached and trained by some of the finest in the industry as well. I am talking about the likes of Neil Patel, Eben Pagan, Frank Kern, Jeff Walker and several others.

True to my unique ability, I have synthesized all the knowledge I have garnered from these experts over these years into a unique system for helping my clients get tremendous results online.

It will therefore be an honor for me to bring these into your company/organization as well.

WHAT I DO

In the past, I have worked with several businesses to pin point the flaws in their current online marketing strategy and proffer meaningful solutions to them.

I have also been helpful to those who do not even have any online marketing system in place yet. I have been able to help them develop systems that have completely revolutionized their businesses.

So whether you are looking to improve what you have going on online or you just want to start your online strategy, I will be glad to be your consultant.

I will be glad to help you navigate the internet waters and come up with a unique plan of action to take your business to the next level.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

In the past couple of years, I have worked with several individuals, organizations and businesses to come up with winning internet and content marketing strategies.

I have also helped some with developing social media strategies to take their business to the next level.

Here is what some of my clients have to say about my work.

Derek Schneider (Founder of History Makers Academy - Canada)

Charles is indeed a man on a mission making history in this generation. The spirit of excellence at work in him is undeniable. Having worked with over 300,000 people and still counting, I am yet to see one that dwarfs the impact this great man makes when he teaches.

Charles is one coach I highly recommend for any business looking to turn their online presence into revenue.

Mike Adeyemo (School Management Consultant)

Mine oh mine! This guy always knocks it out. The “Teach The Teacher” conference couldn’t have been a success without his invaluable training.

Not only were the over 250 teachers and school owners at the conference greatly imparted, I was blown away to visit most of the schools days after and find them using his training videos to train their teachers.

Thanks Charles Emmanuel for over delivering!

Rick Petry (High Performance And Success Coach - USA)

I met Charles during the “Zero To Hero” Summit in 2016.

As a host, he demonstrated such tact that could only have been a result of his dept in teaching and training others.

He always knows the right questions to ask that gets clients thinking in the right direction and coming up with answers.

Even as a professional speaker myself, listening to him teach is indeed a breath of fresh air. I couldn’t recommend him more highly.

Ade O Rims – Host of ... (The Mentor to small businesses and host of Enterprise Hour - Scotland)

I have been following Charles Emmanuel online for a while now. He is doing so well. Having him on our Enterprise Hour session was an unforgettable experience. In fact, he is the first and only speaker we have had on for two consecutive sessions!

Each session with him was very detailed, revealing and enlightening. He is very professional and always over delivers without holding back!
