

WHO I AM

My name is Charles Emmanuel

I am a professional writer and content producer.

I am the #1 bestselling author of “The Diamond in Your Closet” and a self-publishing consultant for Entrepreneurs, Corporate Executives and Public figures.

I shot a special video for you and you can watch it here: <http://uchecharlesemmanuel.com/writer>

MY WORK AND ACHIEVEMENTS

Asides from being a writer and a publishing consultant; I also train, coach and equip intending authors with the skills they need to put their thoughts on paper.

I have actually created several online training programs along this line. Some of these programs include:

- How to go from blank page to a published book (3-Part Video Series)
- 7 steps to write and publish a transformational book (Online Webinar)
- Become a published author (Online Course)

I am also into online marketing/online business consulting for individuals and organizations. I help my clients develop a content marketing strategy to maximize their online presence and attract a steady stream of clients and prospects.

My works have been featured on Fox News, ABC, CBS, NBC, Digital Journal, Addicted2Success and other international media outlets.

MY SKILL SET.

Among other skills, I am very good with Microsoft word and other major word processing software. I also do editing, formatting and content layout well.

I have more than 4 years experience of working with WordPress and I can do SEO optimization as well.

Social media marketing and getting content to go viral on the internet are some of my areas of strength as well.

I do a bit of graphic designing for social media posts, eBook covers and so on. And last but not the least; I also edit videos and audios.

I should also add that I am a very fast learner and would be willing to acquire any skill that would help my efficiency when working with you.

WHY YOU SHOULD HIRE ME

First of all, I am a native English speaker who has been writing professionally for over 10 years now. I have even published over 20 books of my own.

My latest book – “The Diamond In Your Closet” went on to become a #1 bestseller in less than 24 hours after it was launched!

But what I consider most impressive is the fact that this book beat Tony Robbins’ new book in the same category! And in case you don’t know him, Tony Robbins is America’s #1 Motivational Speaker.

Asides from being a writer, I have also mastered the art of content marketing and promotion. So if you are looking for a writer who also understands the marketing side of writing, I am that person.

It will therefore be an honor for me to help bring your business goals to pass by sharing my writing experience, skill and passion with you and your team.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT ME.

In the past, I have worked with several individuals, organizations and businesses to craft their content. I have also helped some with writing, editing, formatting and publishing their books.

Here is what some of my clients have to say about my work.

Derek Schneider (Founder of History Makers Academy - Canada)

Charles is indeed a man on a mission making history in this generation. The spirit of excellence at work in him is undeniable. Having worked with over 300,000 people and still counting, I am yet to see one that dwarfs the impact this great man makes when he teaches.

Charles is one coach I highly recommend for any business looking to turn their online presence into revenue.

Mike Adeyemo (School Management Consultant)

Mine oh mine! This guy always knocks it out. The “Teach The Teacher” conference couldn’t have been a success without his invaluable training.

Not only were the over 250 teachers and school owners at the conference greatly imparted, I was blown away to visit most of the schools days after and find them using his training videos to train their teachers.

Thanks Charles Emmanuel for over delivering!

Rick Petry (High Performance And Success Coach - USA)

I met Charles during the “Zero To Hero” Summit in 2016.

As a host, he demonstrated such tact that could only have been a result of his dept in teaching and training others.

He always knows the right questions to ask that gets clients thinking in the right direction and coming up with answers.

Even as a professional speaker myself, listening to him teach is indeed a breath of fresh air. I couldn't recommend him more highly.

Ade O Rims – Host of ... (The Mentor to small businesses and host of Enterprise Hour - Scotland)

I have been following Charles Emmanuel online for a while now. He is doing so well. Having him on our Enterprise Hour session was an unforgettable experience. In fact, he is the first and only speaker we have had on for two consecutive sessions!

Each session with him was very detailed, revealing and enlightening. He is very professional and always over delivers without holding back!
